PAT HOUKES

Motto: "Face Your Fears, Live Your Dreams"

I get inspiration from my dreams at night. Demons and terrifying creatures in obscure scenes. Although my artworks are very diverse in nature, I incorporate my inspiration into regularly recurring themes such as vulnerability, sexuality, power and detachment. My paintings, drawings and collages on paper combine realistic situations with absurd, surrealistic elements. In my objects and installations I experiment with all kinds of different materials, preferably coming from recycling and readymades.
